Thursday evening Yolo County Sheriff's Department, Animal Services was pleasantly surprised by the arrival of West Sacramento Brownie Troop 447. They brought large Christmas stockings full of animal toys and treats, blankets and towels, along with goodies for the hardworking people at the shelter. In addition to the gifts they brought a monetary donation to help with the expenses incurred with caring for the many animals there that are in need of a loving home. Because of the girls' efforts and generosity they will be receiving their 'Community Service Project' badge. Sgt. Mike Nevis, of Yolo County Animal Services gave them a tour of the facility and animals which included cats, dogs, goats, a donkey, guinea pigs, and various other pets.

There are twelve girls in Brownie Troop 447: Kylee and Kelsey Hall, Shelby and Sydney Giesler, Kara Talbott, Antonia Cooks, Mia Corralejo, Mia Lopez, Ariane and Melina Cavett, Rachel Wong, and Alyssa Klein. Their troop leaders are Samantha Geisler and Tammy Hall.

"Our Animal Services personnel are very diligent in their efforts to ensure the welfare in the animals of the county and to help them in being adoptable to good homes. We are all thankful to Brownie Troop 447 for their spirit and altruism to this good cause. Donated goods and monetary contributions are always appreciated." stated Sheriff Prieto.
