Press Release

Subject: Subject arrested for domestic violence, attempted murder, false imprisonment.

Contact Person: Lance Faille, Sergeant, (530) 668-5212

Date: 01/04/11

Case Number: 2011-0013

On 1/3/11 at approximately 0045 hours, Yolo County Sheriff Deputies arrested 24 year-old Glen Patrick Shoults for attempted murder, false imprisonment, domestic violence and endangering the health of a child.

Shoults and the victim were in a verbal argument at his residence located on the 2700 block of County Rd. 91A in the Winters area of Yolo County. It was reported, during the argument the victim was holding the child they have in common and Shoults began choke the victim while threatening her life. Shoults' mother was present and intervened.

The victim attempted to leave the residence but Shoults held her against her will, assaulting her further.

The victim fled the scene and was contacted by Davis PD during a traffic stop en route to the hospital. Davis PD advised the Sheriff's Office of the crime. Deputies responded to the hospital to investigate the incident. Schultz was subsequently arrested and taken to jail for booking.
