Press Release

Subject: Yolo County Sherriff's Detectives Nab Mother and Daughter team for Identity Theft

Contact: Mark Persons, Public Information, 530.406.5172

Date: September, 27, 2013

On September 24, 2013, the Yolo County Sheriff's Office, with cooperation from the California Department of Justice and the Cache Creek Casino Surveillance Team concluded a four month credit card fraud investigation with the arrest of Regina Reshell Payne, 44, of Rancho Cordova, and her daughter Keitisha Lashell Tucker, 26, of Sacramento.

Between early May 2013, and September 24, 2013, Payne completed nine fraudulent credit card transactions totaling over $34,000 at Cache Creek Casino Resort, with the assistance of Tucker (a casino cashier). Payne utilized multiple fictitious credit cards and a fictitious Illinois driver's license to complete the transactions.

Payne and Tucker were charged with Burglary, Grand theft, Unauthorized use of a credit card, and Conspiracy.

Sheriff's Detectives took both into custody Tuesday evening, and are currently being held at the Yolo County Jail. Payne is being held on $215,000 bail, and Tucker's bail is set at $100,000. Both are expected to be arraigned today.
