Press Release

Subject: Subject Arrested for Resisting a Peace Officer

Contact: Mark Persons, Public Information, 530.406.5172

Date: December 11, 2013

On Tuesday, December 10, 2013, Yolo County Sheriff's deputies arrested a subject for resisting a peace officer and violation of parole.

At 11:45 am, an off-duty deputy was driving his personal vehicle in the area of First and Court Streets, in Woodland, when he observed a male subject on a bicycle riding erratically.

When the deputy got to the intersection of Main and First Streets, the subject intentionally ran into the deputy's vehicle with the bicycle. The deputy rolled down his window and asked the male to stop. The male continued to ride his bike southbound on First and then west on Lincoln Street while the deputy followed. The subject finally stopped on Lincoln Street.

The deputy then contacted him and advised he wanted for them to both look at the vehicle to see if there was any damage. At this point the subject became agitated and began yelling. The subject also picked up the bicycle and held it at chest level. The deputy tried to calm the subject and again said all he wanted them to do was determine if there was any damage to the truck. The subject again picked up the bicycle and started towards the deputy, as if preparing to strike him with it. The deputy, believing the subject was going to strike him with the bicycle, pulled his firearm, identified himself as a peace officer and ordered the subject to drop the bicycle and to get on the ground. The subject put down the bike, but refused the deputy's orders to comply. The subject then became physically resistive with the deputy trying to detain him. The deputy holstered his firearm and was finally able to physically detain the subject.

"Service Without Limitations"
