Press Release

Subject: Stabbing

Contact: Sergeant Hernan Oviedo

DATE: 10/19/15

On Saturday October 17th, 2015 at approximately 10:30 PM deputies responded to the Madison Town Hall for a report of a stabbing where a quinceanera reception was being held.

Responding deputies determined that six people had been stabbed. The suspect identified as Madison resident Daniel Portugal 18years old, was an uninvited guest and was being detained on scene by attendees of the party. Deputies took Portugal into custody and recovered a weapon.

All six victims were transported to local area hospitals by emergency medical personnel for treatment. All of the victims have survived their injuries.

Portugal is currently in custody and is being held on six counts of assault with a deadly weapon and violation of probation.

Yolo County Sheriff detectives and CSI responded to the scene and are still actively investigating the case.

The Yolo County Sheriff's Office urges anyone with information about the stabbing to contact the Yolo Tip Hotline at (530) 668-5248.
