You have the right to make a complaint against a peace officer for any improper conduct. California law requires this agency to have a procedure to investigate citizen complaints. You have a right to a written description of this procedure. The agency may find after investigation that there is not enough evidence to warrant action on your complaint. Nevertheless, you have the right to make a complaint and have it investigated if you believe an officer acted improperly. Citizen complaints and any reports or findings relating to complaints must be retained by this agency for at least five years.

I have read and understand the above statement:
