Press Release

Subject: Deputies Recognized by Board of Supervisors

Contact: Sgt. Matthew Davis

Date: October 25, 2017

Three Yolo County Sheriff's Deputies received a standing ovation while being recognized for their outstanding effort during this week's Board of Supervisors Meeting.

On September 29, 2017, at approximately 12:45 am, Deputies Jack Schubert, Miles Torres, and Erin Forster responded to a residence on County Road 95 following the report of a stabbing. Upon arrival, all three deputies, working together, immediately began attempting to save the victim's life. When AMR arrived on scene the paramedics observed a large amount of blood and found Deputy Torres holding the victim's head to maintain his airway, Deputy Schubert conducting chest compressions, and Deputy Forster using her entire body weight to compress bleeding wounds.

When the lifesaving efforts were determined to be futile, the deputies immediately returned to their duty as law enforcement officers. Information was obtained from the witness, the scene was secured, and suspect information was broadcast to additional responding deputies and allied agencies ultimately leading to the capture of the suspect.

Deputies Schubert, Torres, and Forster were recognized as "Difference Makers" for going above and beyond the call of duty and putting the life of another person first. Sheriff Prieto, present for the presentation, noted he was proud of the job these deputies did during this difficult situation.
