Press Release

Subject: Probationer Arrested After Standoff

Contact: Sgt. Matthew Davis (530) 668-5280

Date: November 29, 2017

Sheriff's Deputies assisted with the arrest of a probationer who removed his ankle monitor and fled from Yolo County Probation Officers.

On November 28, 2017, at approximately 1:15 pm, Deputies were requested by Probation Officers at an address on the 25000 block of County Road 95 where a suspect had barricaded himself in a residence. Contact was made with the subject via cell phone. After a four hour standoff he willfully exited the structure and was taken into custody without incident.

While on the perimeter, deputies were forced to shoot an aggressive dog that threatened them after less lethal options were deployed without success. The dog was immediately rushed to a veterinary hospital. Unfortunately, the dog had to be euthanized.

Charles Monteleone, 36, of Woodland, was placed under arrest for a probation violation and resisting arrest. He was transported to the Yolo County Jail where he was booked.
